Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents,

It has been great to welcome the children back to school this week. Everyone settled quickly and it has been made more enjoyable with the sun shining.

It's been a quiet week and next week looks to be much the same. We did have a visit from PC Morris, a local police officer, who will be running a 6-week mini policing workshop for our Year 6 children.

Thank you for the feedback regarding the draft RSE policy we sent at the end of the term. We have received some really positive and constructive comments. It has helped identify an area that needs clarification and more detail within the curriculum plans. I will be updating the information and policy and will send an amended policy for your reference.

Thank you for all your efforts in getting the school uniform back on track, I know appointments at Clarks have taken some time. Don't forget the children need a cap/sun hat, sunglasses and definitely pop some sun cream in the school bag from now on. We are optimistic that the good weather is here to stay.

Wishing you all a good weekend,

Mrs Hammett

Penny Hammett
