Privacy Notice - How the PTFA uses personal information

The categories of PTFA member information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, email address and telephone number)
- children's names and classes

Why we collect and use this information

We use this data to:

- keep members of the PTFA informed about meetings, events and ideas
- enable children to enter competitions run by the PTFA
- enable individuals to book tickets for events and deliver the tickets to them
- enable communication between school and PTFA
- ensure that all students attending events are accounted for when collected or in an emergency

Collecting this information

All of the information is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with General Data Protection legislation, we will inform you that you have a choice in sharing this information with us.

Storing this information

Contact details of PTFA members are stored by the PTFA chair and secretary for the purposes of communication. All other data is only kept for the purpose of the event then returned or destroyed.

Who we share this information with

PTFA committee members can choose to share their contact details on the school website for the purposes of organising events or communication. We do not share others' information with anybody else. All communications are sent as blind copies so details are not visible to other PTFA members.
